

YOU ARE CORDIALLY INVITED TO A LUNCHEON LECTURE

Sponsored by the
BURTON BLATT INSTITUTE

on Emergency Preparedness for People with Disabilities in the Ministry of Social Affairs

presented by
MOSHE SION

Senior Deputy Director General for Administration and Human Services,
Ministry of Social Services

Former Director General of the Ministry of Social Services in Tel Aviv

on

Tuesday, November 25, 2008
at 12:30 p.m.

at

Hillel at Syracuse University –
The Winnick Hillel Center for Jewish Life
102 Walnut Place
Syracuse, NY 13210

Moshe Sion is the Senior Deputy Director General for Administration and Human Resources, Ministry of Social Affairs in Tel Aviv, Israel. Prior to this appointment, he was the Director General of the Ministry of Social Affairs. As the Director General of the Ministry of Social Affairs, Mr. Sion had overall executive responsibility for Israel's social service system, including determination of social policy and budgeting of social services in accordance with the government's goals and priorities. Mr. Sion is an alumnus of the Israel National Security College, and earned his M.A. in Political Science and National Security at the University of Hafia.

~ Complimentary Lunch will be served ~
Kindly RSVP no later than Friday, November 21, 2008
to Cathy Hartquist at clhartqu@law.syr.edu or by calling (315) 443-2863