Extraordinary Speaker Series & Lunch

Overcoming Challenges of Disability in Self Employment and the Importance of Support

Guest Speaker:

Kevin Webb
Entrepreneur with Disability - Start-Up USA Participant

Kevin Webb is a co-owner of his business with his father Ron Taylor. Kevin and his father were invited to participate in a statewide project to expand self-employment opportunities and supports in Kentucky through an inventive partnership between VR, the Governor's Council, State and local SBDC's, the University of Kentucky and Griffin-Hammis Associates. Kevin and Ron’s business was funded by VR and the Governor's council with additional funding support through Griffin-Hammis Associates assistance in developing a fully funded PASS exceeding $20,000 from SSA and $9000 from other sources. His business ownership has now renewed his energy and enjoyment of work.
