Keynote Speaker

Joe Marrone

Based in Portland, OR, at the Institute for Community Inclusion, Joe Marrone is currently most involved in projects related to national technical assistance and keynote presentations on policy and programmatic design issues related to workforce development/WIA and customers with disabilities, employment/recovery within mental health systems of care, welfare reform and customers with disabilities, marketing and business services, and state-level employment policies affecting citizens with disabilities.

He was the Coordinator of Technical Assistance and the Director of Training at the Center on Promoting Employment (RRTC) at ICI until January, 1999. From 1999-2000, he was the Associate Director of Columbia River Mental Health Services for Psychosocial Rehabilitation in Vancouver, WA. In 2004, he was one of five National Rehabilitation Association Mary Switzer Scholars selected nationwide.

Joe has consulted, trained, and lectured in 48 states, Canada, Puerto Rico, Europe, and Asia and was featured in a lengthy interview about work and mental illness in the Summer 2004 issue of Reintegration Today. He was on the faculties of the New England Psychiatric Rehabilitation Training Program for over 15 years. Before that, he served on the faculties of the Michigan State University Long-Term Training Grant in Psychiatric Rehabilitation and the University of Pittsburgh/Western Psychiatric Institute’s National Psychiatric Rehabilitation Training grant. Joe has also been an adjunct faculty member of the New England School of Professional Psychology and the Boston University School of Medicine. He has authored numerous articles, monographs, and book chapters.
