What are universities' obligations to ensure their students have equal access to digital spaces, including E-Libraries, E-Books and E-Readers?

What are some practical steps that university librarians can take to encourage publishers to embrace inclusive design?

How can organizations maximize the possibility that their library will create a digital environment that is accessible to all students regardless of their abilities?

ASL and CART will be provided. To request other accommodations, contact Lesley Pease (ldpease@syr.edu) by February 10th.