

COMMON AND DIVERSE GROUND: RAISING CONSCIOUSNESSES BY ACKNOWLEDGING THE "HIDDEN" THINGS THAT DIVIDE US

INTERFAITH DIALOGUE DINNER SERIES

Spring 2019

Each two-hour gathering will include a shared meal, facilitated dialogue, and two mindful meditations (at beginning and end). Sessions will be co-facilitated by chaplains, faculty, staff, and students.

6:00 to 8:00 PM
DINNER STARTS AT 5:30 PM

NOBLE ROOM, HENDRICKS CHAPEL

Jan. 22: CAN ANYONE BE *BORN A CRIME?

Feb. 28: ON DISABILITY, FORGIVENESS, ANIMALS, AND FAITH

Mar. 28: INTERFAITH RESPONSES TO SEXUAL AND RELATIONSHIP VIOLENCE

This ongoing series is cosponsored by Hendricks Chapel, the Office of Interdisciplinary Programs and Outreach in the Burton Blatt Institute (BBI), and the Disability Cultural Center (DCC). American Sign Language (ASL) interpretation and inclusive food will be provided. Requests for accommodations (a week in advance), food queries, and other questions can be sent to: chapel@syr.edu.

Syracuse University
HENDRICKS CHAPEL
BURTON BLATT INSTITUTE and
DISABILITY CULTURAL CENTER

